BYU outside hitter Bryan Stewart went so hard all weekend that he actually lo
"I jumped up for a quick behind-the-setter, but I landed on his head and I'm tooth that got stuck into his head—because he got cut and had to come out chin," he said.
Stewart returned to action and was named BYU Player of the Game in their Friday night after recording 13 kills and six digs. Stewart had an emergency morning and returned for both Cougar matches that day.