colophon

The Gateway is created using Macintosh computers, HP Scanjet flatbed scanners, and a Nikon Super Cool Scan optical film scanner. Adobe InDesign is used for layout. Adobe Illustrator is used for vector images, while Adobe Photoshop is used for raster images. Adobe Acrobat is used to create PDF files which are burned directly to plates to be mounted on the printing press. Text is set in a variety of sizes, styles, and weights of FENICE, Joanna, Kepler and Whitney. The Manitoban is the Gateway's sister paper, and we love her dearly, though "not in that way." The Gateway's games of choice are Apples to Apples and Mind Games.

CAMPUS CRIME BEAT

Compiled by Cody Civiero

CHAIRSNARE

Campus Security is looking into the theft of several seats from the Tory Lecture Theatre. The chairs were removed some time between 11-14 January, despite being bolted to a frame. The seats are said to be worth several hundred dollars. If you have any information regarding the theft, please contact Campus 5-0.

NO VACANCY

On 14 January at 1:50pm, Campus Security received a report of a male sleeping in the lobby of University Terrace. Upon arrival, peace officers found a male well-known to both Campus 5-0 and Edmonton Police Service. The man had an extensive criminal record for robbery, break and enter, and assault, and was found to be in possession of several break-in tools. He was charged with trespassing and escorted off University property.

ALTERED PERMIT ONLY VALID AT THE IMPOUND LOT

At 3pm on 14 January, Campus Security investigated a report of an altered parking permit near the Van Vliet Centre. The driver, here to attend University preparation classes, was issued several fines by Parking Services, and his vehicle was towed. He was also given a stern warning about fraud. Campus 5-0 would like to remind everyone that it is illegal to alter a parking permit in any way, and that a person could be charged under the Criminal Code for doing so.

KEEP YOUR MIND ON YOUR MONEY AND YOUR MONEY ON YOUR MIND

On 16 January, Campus Security investigated two separate wallet thefts. There are no suspects in either instance; however, in both cases, the owners of the wallets had walked away from where they were studying, leaving their belongings unattended for a few minutes. Campus 5-0 reminds you to always keep your valuables with you, as theft is a problem on campus.

CLASSROOM MADE OPOSSUM ACCESSIBLE

On 18 January at 7:45am, Campus Security received a report of vandalism in ETLC. CSS members attended, at which time they found numerous ceiling tiles removed and several chairs hanging from the ceiling in their place. The chairs in question were not the same ones as reported stolen from Tory. There are no identified suspects at this time.

RUBBING IT THE WRONG WAY

At 8pm on 20 January, Campus Security received a report that a male was viewing pornography in the Knowledge Common on a University computer. CSS members attended and identified an unaffiliated male whom they found viewing the material. The curious online looker, who had also been reported following a student around the Cameron Library area, was transported off campus.

STREETERS

As you may be aware, it's really fucking cold outside.

What were you thinking when you got up and came to class?

"I couldn't breathe." [Why couldn't you breathe?] "Because it was so cold. As soon as you step outside, the air is so cold so it's really hard to breathe."

"It's the coldest day I have ever experienced. It's the coldest day since I came to Edmonton."

"That I wish I did not have a paper due so I did not have to go to class today."

"I was thinking, 'Holy fuck, it's cold outside and I might turn into a popsicle as soon as I leave the house.' And I ate some porridge. Supposedly that makes you warm."
