

Bibliography

Webpages:

- Government of Canada Resource. Key Economic Events. Retrieved February 22nd, 2005 from http://canadianeconomy.gc.ca/english/economy/1947Leduc_Oil_Discovery.html
- CBC Archives. Articles, radio programs and documentary clips. Retrieved February 24th, 2005 from http://archives.cbc.ca/IDD-1-73-378/politics_economy/alberta_oil/
- History of Development. Alberta's Natural Resources. Retrieved February 22nd, 2005 from http://www.abheritage.ca/abresources/history/history_leduc_during.html
- Wikipedia. Online Encyclopedia. Retrieved February 22nd, 2005 from http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Athabasca_Tar_Sands
- Steam Assisted Gravity Drainage (SAGD): A New Production Technology for Heavy Oil and Bitumens. Retrieved February 24th, 2005 from http://www.cseg.ca/recorder/pdf/2003/03mar/mar03_08.pdf
- From the Wilderness Publications. Retrieved February 24th, 2005 from http://www.fromthewilderness.com/free/ww3/052703_tar_sands.html
- Life After the Oil Crash. Retrieved February 24th, 2005 from <http://www.lifeaftertheoilcrash.net/>
- Calgary and Southern Alberta. Retrieved February 24th, 2005 from http://www.ucalgary.ca/applied_history/tutor/calgary/energycrisis.html
- Wikipedia. Online encyclopedia. Retrieved February 25th, 2005 from http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/National_Energy_Program
- Wikipedia. Online encyclopedia. Retrieved February 25th, 2005 from <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bitumen>

Magazines:

Oilweek Magazine. (2005). Alberta, 1905-2005: Turning on the Taps: The 100 year boom & Bust saga of Alberta and its Oil Industry. Riverbend Library Resources

(Balogun, 2006, p. 3)